1. Chinese communists in Bangkok this week are making capital of Paul McNutt's visit. They have started the rumor that McNutt's visit was to aid the political comeback of Phibul Songgram, which they claim is to have United States backing.
2. Local Chinese communists are planning vigorous anti-American campaign charging the United States is pursuing a fascist policy in Greece and Turkey.
3. As part of elaborate defense against Phibul's rumored comeback Chinese communist press is preparing detailed account of his record to be released in special anti-Phibul editions.
